

BECOME A GOVERNOR AT

Join over a quarter of a million volunteers who are governors in state schools across England.

Get to know people from different backgrounds with different experiences. Work together on the rewarding goal of making sure children receive a fantastic education.

Invest in your personal development. Learn new skills and see the impact of using the ones you already have in a different context.

IS IT FOR ME?

A bit more information to help you decide if this role is right for you:

- It takes just a few hours a month. This is made up of a monthly meeting (6 - 8pm on a Monday) and then some time to read, visit the school or attend training.
- You can attend meetings online or in person, to allow flexibility with work and home commitments.
- All training is provided and is free of charge.
- You don't need to be a parent or have any prior connection to the school.
- You don't need to have a background in education.

If this isn't something that's a good fit for you at the moment, please pass this information on to a colleague, friend or family member.
